Welcome to Keele University

We hope that you enjoy your visit to Keele, and that you find it informative and useful. This booklet is to help you get the most out of your visit. To get you started, we would like to suggest the ‘must do’ activities.

- Registration: register your attendance in the Chancellor’s Building or the Students’ Union, and collect your programme for the day. For those visiting the David Weatherall Building (Medicine) there will also be a Registration Point here.
- Visit the Academic Schools: they may be offering taster sessions, talks and tours of the facilities and all will be offering drop-in sessions and the chance to ask questions about the course.
- Go to the general talks: most of the talks are in or near the Chancellor’s Building.
- Visit the information stands in the Chancellor’s Building: get information and answers to your questions on things like admissions, accommodation, study abroad, student finance, the Students’ Union.
- Take a campus tour: go around our campus with the Student Ambassadors who know what it is really like to live here.
- Finally, we’ll send you the link to our online feedback form so you can tell us what you think about your Visit Day experience.

For any other queries
If you need any help or advice about making the most of your day, then come to the Exhibition Suite where our staff on the information stand will be more than happy to help.
We look forward to welcoming you to Keele!

Train to teach English to speakers of other languages as part of your degree course and gain a recognised qualification which could see you teaching in the UK or abroad by the end of your second year. Previous students have worked in UK summer schools as well as countries such as Spain, Thailand and Colombia.

International Exchange and more...
Come and explore the international opportunities available to you that Keele has to offer during the Visit Day. Find out where in the world you can go in your second year, or even after second year. Students in second year from most programmes can spend a semester or year abroad without extending their degree, with no extra tuition cost.

Universities and Colleges in Europe, Asia, Australia, South Africa and North America provide excellent international partnerships for study. Our Peer Adviser team, made up of students who have already travelled abroad, are available to share information on financial and academic requirements, and answer any questions you may have on the process. Whether it is dog trekking across the Arctic, or living in the heart of the American South in Mississippi that takes your fancy, our diverse range of Partner Universities can provide you with an experience to remember.

New opportunities in 2014-15 include an International Year Abroad for Single Honours Mathematics and Chemistry students. Expand your degree to four years of study and spend the year between second and third year abroad learning more about yourself and your career direction. Stay tuned for this opportunity to expand into other areas of study.

Erasmus+ provides an excellent opportunity for students to explore a European destination. Work and study placements during the summer break or after graduation can provide important work experience to add to your degree.

Students studying in Europe in second year or in the new four-year degree will be eligible for an Erasmus grant to help them fund their studies.
