Sneyd Correspondence

None of the Sneyd family's correspondence was catalogued at an earlier date, and there are separate catalogues for the letters of William Sneyd, Elizabeth Taylor, Lady Chester, and James Copes, for the letters of Ralph Sneyd (1773-1776) to members of his family and to and from Henry Wiliam Vincent, and for the letters of Rev. Walter Sneyd from the Rev. Robert Cusack. Most of the early correspondence was included in the main Sneyd MS sequence and can be found at sl457, sl4359, and sl5051. Many letters to the nineteenth-century Sneyds can be found at sl2535-2916.

The Sneyd family correspondence, apart from letters between John, 2nd Earl of Clare, Isabella Fitzgibbon, and issued by the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland, are in the catalog.

Ralph Sneyd's correspondence has been divided into various sections, as follows:

- Letters from his parents, brother, and sisters.
- Letters of his daughter, Charlotte Augusta Sneyd (1856-1862) to members of his family and to and from Henry Wiliam Vincent.

The catalogue, correspondents are arranged in alphabetical order of Sneyd's letters and miscellaneous items sent to him.
Some of the Sneyd family's correspondence was catalogued at an earlier date, and there are separate calendars for the letters of William Sneyd, Elizabeth Taylor, Lady Chester and James Granger, for the letters of Ralph Sneyd (1793-1870) to members of his family and to and from Henry William Vincent, and for the letters of Rev. Walter Sneyd from The Hon. Robert Curzon. Most of the early correspondence was included in the main Sneyd 'S' sequence and can be found at S1457, S1458 and S2855. Many letters to the nineteenth-century Sneyds can be found at S2856-2916.

This catalogue covers some letters of The Hon. Louisa Sneyd (1764-1834), wife of Colonel Walter Sneyd and daughter of 1st Lord Bagot; most of the letters of Ralph Sneyd (1793-1870); some letters of Charlotte Augusta Sneyd (1800-1882); some letters of Rev. Walter Sneyd (1809-1888); and miscellaneous correspondence of the Bagot and Granville families.

The Clare family correspondence, apart from letters between John, 2nd Earl of Clare, Isabella Fitzgibbon and Ralph Sneyd, was catalogued by the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland in 1978, and is in a separate calendar.

Ralph Sneyd's correspondence has been divided into various sections, thus:

Family: letters from his parents, brother and sisters.

Other Sneyds including his aunts Ann, Elizabeth and Harriet, but not Charlotte

[see Miscellaneous Correspondents: Davenport.]

Other Correspondents

Miscellaneous Correspondents)

The John Rylands Library divided these into "Peerage" and "Non-peerage", but so many are in fact members of some noble house that they have been merged in this catalogue. Individuals are grouped under the family's title when relevant e.g. Charles Percy appears under "Northumberland". When there are only a couple of letters from one family, they are featured in "Miscellaneous Correspondence".

Unidentified Correspondents whose signatures are either missing or illegible.

Letters to Editors

Unidentified Draft Letters: Sneyd's English Drafts, the addressees named only by initial.

Unaddressed Draft Letters

Draft Letters in French

Draft Letters in Italian No Italian speaker was available, so the subjects of Italian letters are unknown.

Miscellaneous: Sneyd's notes and miscellaneous items sent to him.

Throughout the catalogue, correspondents are arranged in alphabetical order of Christian name within their family groupings. Double-barrelled surnames are listed under the last component e.g. Wilmot-Horton under "Horton". Surnames beginning with "de" are listed under the main component e.g. de Grey under "Grey".

Matter which is inferred from other evidence is presented in square brackets [ ]; matter which is deciphered from poor handwriting is followed by a question mark (?).
