

Access to laboratories and research office space is controlled by Keele Card
 Numbers show suggested maximum number of workers per lab
NOTE all cell culture labs are 'rooms within rooms' so social distancing will have to be ensured for anyone entering or leaving cell culture
 Building is alarmed outside of normal working hours. Designated users can access out of hours and disarm the alarm, subject to risk assessment
 Rear access corridor is much narrower than others
 All users can be allocated a locker (there are hundreds...)
