

Sustainability, The Euro & The UK

Wednesday 24th October, 5.45pm,
Management School, Keele University

FREE ADMISSION

Based on the popular BBC Question Time TV programme this panel led discussion will highlight some of the issues of sustainability and the impact of the Euro on the UK economy. Ask your own question

Panel Chair:

Richard Ward, CCMI, President Staffordshire Branch CMI

Ask your questions about the conflicting:

- Social
- Environment
- Economic

Aspects of sustainable development and hear the view of our panel of experts.

Who should attend?

Anyone who wants to know more about how the problems with the Euro will impact on companies pursuing sustainable business practices.

For many people, there are serious conflicts between sustainability and economic development. Explore how the problems in the Euro Zone are creating difficult decisions on sustainability or are they a driver to improve performance? Ask your own question regarding the impacts (positive or negative) on jobs and development.
