Dear students,

As part of our commitment to continually work to improve our programmes we are confirming in this document the changes to your programme in the Academic Year 2021/22. We are planning for campus to be fully operational in 2021/22, which offers the clear prospect of a fuller and more 'normal' campus experience and will be ready to react to any further national restrictions or government guidance, as necessary. More general information about what studying at the University will be like in 2021/22 can be found here: <https://www.keele.ac.uk/coronavirus/operations/>.

Specific planned changes

How the programme will be taught (include any significant changes to the balance between on campus and digital delivery and what students can expect)	Students can expect a mixture of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • scheduled live teaching – on-campus, and in some cases online, involving whole group and small group teaching; • use of online resources, including pre-recorded resources, tasks and reading; • collaborative work with others, either in-person or online. Changes to the balance of on-campus and on-line may be necessary depending on circumstances. In addition: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Catch-up or parallel opportunities for students who are unable to attend due to shielding, self-isolation etc. • Learning Plans to establish teaching and learning goals and structure required work. • A wide range of preparation/consolidation tasks and activities to test and apply knowledge and understanding.
