Dear students,

As part of our commitment to continually work to improve our programmes, and in light of our plans to start next academic year with a hybrid delivery model due to the impact of Covid-19, we are confirming in this document the changes to your programme in the Academic Year 2020/21. More general information about what studying at the University will be like in 2020/21 can be found here:

<https://www.keele.ac.uk/coronavirus/operations/>

Specific planned changes

How the programme will be taught (include any significant changes to the balance between on campus and digital delivery and what students can expect)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A combination of campus and online delivery, with in situ group teaching prioritised for delivery on campus from the outset. ● Micro lectures pre-recorded and delivered in manageable chunks, accessible as and when required. ● Live, online sessions delivered via Microsoft teams. ● Smaller tutorial groups with consistent membership across core modules. ● More frequent small-group sessions. ● Catch-up opportunities for students who are unable to attend due to shielding, self-isolation etc. ● Weekly Learning Plans to establish teaching and learning goals and structure required work. ● A wide range of online preparation/consolidation tasks and activities to test and apply knowledge and understanding. ● Improved opportunities to engage with peers, with collaborative, interactive elements forming part of required tutorial work. ● Co-curricular opportunities to develop skills associated with Law competitions fully flexible should we need to move to an online format.
Changes to placements, field courses or other practical activities (where applicable)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Applications for Placement Year Law placements for 2020/21, will be dealt with on a case by case basis with a cut-off point of August 25th for approval of arrangements. For further information, please contact Catherine Edwards (Senior Practitioner in Law): c.edwards@keele.ac.uk

Learning resources and any potential additional costs (such as equipment requirements)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Revised reading lists for modules, focusing on digitised materials and open access sources, limiting as far as possible references to materials that are only available in print. We will continue to require the purchase of textbooks for modules deemed 'essential'. Given an increasing level of online teaching and assessments for this programme, it would be preferable if students had access to computer equipment with a webcam and microphone. It may also be preferable for students to have adequate Wi-Fi connectivity and associated internet speeds. Students who need support in accessing appropriate IT equipment may be eligible to apply for support from the University's hardship fund.
How the programme will be assessed (a general summary of changes to assessment methods)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Most modules formerly assessed by exam will adopt a 24-hour, online, open-book format. Practical components of assessments for modules on the Professional Legal Practice pathway (e.g. LAW-20060 Civil Litigation; LAW-30118 Practice of Criminal Litigation) may be conducted via Teams if required due to social distancing.
How students are supported (any alternative arrangements such as communication methods, support networks etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consistently presented electronic module handbooks with detailed guidance on how the module will be delivered. Welcome Back Week providing induction, guidance and orientation for returning students, including use of KLE and Teams, software and apps. Legal Essentials module offers bespoke induction for new L4 Law students. Improved one-to-one subject tutor and Personal Tutor access using youcanbook.me Personal Tutoring: students will be assigned to a tutor group to meet and collaborate with peers and connect with their Personal Tutor in a wider range of ways. Support for digital learning provided by Student Learning and Development Fellow
