

INVITATION TO ATTEND

Rural Health Workshop

Tuesday 18th December 2018

9:00am - 1:00pm

Rodbaston Hall, Penkridge, Staffordshire

The theme for this workshop is: RURAL INNOVATION

This workshop is part the Forum for Rural REsearch on Health & Well-being (FRRESH) a Keele University initiative. During the workshop we will explore rural innovation in the context of health and well-being. We will share examples of innovation from research and invite stakeholders to share their experiences of innovations in practice.

Our guest speaker for the workshop is:

Nikki Silver

Nikki represents the voluntary organisation LIVES based in Lincolnshire (www.lives.org.uk). LIVES have trained 700+ volunteers to respond to medical emergencies in their communities. An excellent example of innovation that has saved lives.
