

Links Policy

User Information:

1. All links from this website are selected using our links policy.
2. Links are provided for information and convenience only.
3. We cannot accept responsibility for the sites linked to, or the information found there.
4. Listing should not be taken as endorsement of any kind; not linking does not imply lack of endorsement.
5. We cannot guarantee that these links will work all of the time and we have no control over the availability of the linked pages.

Links policy in order to select Internet Links for the Subject Pages on the Health Library website:

1. Websites should present information relevant to the subject area
2. Websites should be current
3. Websites should predominantly present freely available information i.e. not predominantly commercial
4. Websites should be easy to read, with information presented clearly
5. Websites should demonstrate clear navigation for users to follow
6. Users should be informed if registration is required to access material
7. The name of the main home organisation should be included if the link is not to the home page i.e. x-information available from y-org
8. Text should indicate if the link is not UK-based if not immediately obvious
9. Do not link directly to documents, link to the main page where the document link is described and is accessible
